

A vote to ease rules on media ownership will be against the public interest. There will be reduced local access and coverage. The rules should be reformed to prevent the ownership of different forms of media in the same market and prevent ownership of all outlets of the same form ie all radio stations in a market or all newspapers in a market.